Washington, May 4 - Chy - The loss of vast China to communism who greatest political mistake x x in a hundred years in the Pacific" - keys Gen, ouglas MacArthur's split over Par East policy with the Truman adminis-

The general so characterized the ions of China to the Rade in his testimony before two senate com-mittees yesterday, sharply challenging alministration China policy. By implication he made clear his lew that the assistance provided Chiang Kai Shek around the time of the victory over Japan in the Pacific was insufficient to held Chiang overcome his Communist enemies. MacArthur told sensiors his solution in 1945 would have been to give the Chinese government enough aid to have checked! the growing tide of communism. "A very little help and asulatance in my butter at that time would have accomplished that purpose, he said. The questioning did not extend to what form he thinks the help sho2ould have taken, The administration position has been that outright $20,000 worth of postwar aid was furnished to Chiang Kal Shek, without counting sales of surplus-U. S. war

But - as the Truman administration has made clear - this country's policy was designed to produce a peaceful settlement in China, It was not designed to en courage Chiang to try to overcome the Communists by force of arms. MacArthur declared that the ad-ministration's 1945-46 policy of socking a merger of the Chinese

Communists and Nationalists hever had a chance. He put it this way: "There was just about as inuch chance of setting tham together as that oil and water will mix." It was in 1945 that President Truman sent Gen. George C. Marshull, now secretary of defense, to China as special ambassador. Murshall was instructed to try to negotlate a permanent settement between the Chinese Communists und Nationalists.

ust, 1949, Marshall's mission in the carly months of 1946 made some progress toward a Communist. Nationalist agreement but in the spring of that year the probabil-

The governor yesterday killed the measure on the ground that it was "unconstitutional." Both Education Commissioner A. B. Bonds and Comptroller Lee Roy Beasley had requested the action.

The measure would have allowed a school district to transfer funds to another. Its sponsor Rep. John Gettell of prairie county said it was intended to help some dis-tricts stay open a full nine months by reshulding surplus funds from one account to another. Governor McMath comuleted ac-

Inspiring Letter

Dear Miss Dix: I thought maybe you would like a letter from one happy woman. I will be 42 years old next week. For 30 of those figures. But they were all false years I have been partly paralyzed beards and were kept by Muni in on the left side. In spite of that I managed to snag myself a wonder ful husband.

I try to make the most of the assets I do have. There's no use sitting around sobbing because I am handicapped. I've found smile will get me further than a long face. We don't have too much of this world's goods and have to spend a lot on doctors, but my husband never gets impatient and he is always so proud when I do something that is difficult for me. If I make up my mind to do some-thing, it takes a lot to convince me I can't do it. I do my ironing --even do shirts -- though I have only one hand to use. It gives me a grand feeling to do things, and as I said, I am

GOPs Bitter

Washington, May 4 - (A) - Sen ate Republicans fought bitterly on inday in an attempt to force public hearing of the testimony of Gen. Douglas MacArthur on the issue of er East policy.
Whether the GOP forces could force a showdown vote on the transie on this second day of MacActhur's testimony behind the guarded doors of the hearing room was problematical.

Arrayed against them are Demo ratic forces charging the Repub licans with trying to make politi cal capital of MacArthur's appear ance before the joint senate armed services and foreign relations conmittees.

Democrats argue that vital mill ary secrets might be spread broad in open hearings. The committees are making public all the testimony except for portions cen sored by military and state dapartment officials.

Senator Wherry of Nebraska; the Republican floor leader, told reports ers the issue has grown "too hot?" for the Democrats to stand flem in their refusal to permit the ussue to come to a senate vote.

By 42 to 39 vote, the Democrats restorday forced a recess of, the senate until today after hours of amony debute. The action headed off a vote on hearings issue, made the kingdom strong. Solomon "in all his glory" tended its bounds, and made it dy, stronger still. But much of that glory was built upon exploration 7:30 p. m. Young Peoples Service, and oppression, and on Solomon's death the people cried out for ar alleviation of their burdens.

It will be remembered that Rehoboam, Solomon's son asked advice from older men, who advised him to yeild, butt followed the advice of the younger men who advised him to show them who was the master. It was them who was that Jeroboam came up then that Egypt, where he had escaped after leading an unseccessful rebel-lion. Now he sucreeded, and the division began, with the movement toward doom that I have cited a-"History repeats itself."

Acclaimed by ministers, priests, rabbis and people of every faith for its non sectarian presentation of its vital story of brotherly love. Let's have 200 present next Sunday.

Setbacks No Doubt Stung MacArthur

By JAMES MARLO W

Washington, May 4 - (A) - No he end of his brilliant career Ge eral MacArthur, a proud ma suffered two setbacks which u doubtedly stung him severely. First, the Chinese forced iroops in Korea to make a gre retreat. And then, when he urg broader war against China, Pre-dent stripped him of his cor mands, a great humiliation for at MacArthur urged the wider w on China on the grounds that vas the only sensible way fight the war, would bring it to successful conclusion, and wou save American lives.

He urged this even though he told two senate committees ye terday — we might have to go alone without alifes, even thou it might possibly — although said he doubted it — involve us a prolonged war with China; even bring in Russia and sta World War III.

If he had had his way, of cours ad fought the war with China victory, as he wanted to fight the defeat by the Chinese la November and December wou have been crased from the histo

But as he insisted before senators the chance of carrying out his view was denied him ? he President who had different with him took all MacArthur's commands away from him.

This one-man show can't last i ever, of course, for the joint chie of staff - and probably Secretar of Defense Marshal and Secretar of State Acheson - will soon f low him before the senate comm tees to give their views.

President Truman must feel the what they saw will contradict Mad Arthur, for late yesterday Mr. Tri man urged the country to wait ur til both sides were heard before reachin ga conclusion.

The Truman administration view is this: The main threa from communism is from Ruuula not China, and the main threat in Europe, not Asia: so defens against Russia has to be built u in Europe; therefore don't ge from Europe and might bring in Rus on China's side, starting anoth world war. The Truman can't be sure what Russia would do. So it's guessing, when it won ion and sermon. The special music will be by the combined youth and adult choir. Prayer Change timistically, judging from what he told the sanate yesterday: lie dosn't think much of Communist China's ability to fight big war; he doesn't think it would last long; and he doesn't t. in Russia would be much help qthe Chinese even if it did get into the war in Asia. In fact, he didn' seem to think much of Russia abil ity to make war in Asia.

According to President Truman MBcAurther was a y optimistic general once bekore and was very wrong Mr. Truman told a new conference yesterday:
